

Room and board financial assistance is a payment that is paid for or provided by the State agency and/or LDSS for room and board, including rent deposits, utilities, and other household start-up expenses.