

The Role of Training in Your Agency

- Supports the agency mission and promotes child safety and family self-sufficiency
- Helps identify areas of knowledge and skill that staff need
- Sets the practice standard for child welfare service delivery
- Area Training Centers provide training to staff in your agency that meet priority training needs of the workers in each region
- Area Training Centers use regional data to decide the type and frequency of child welfare training to offer each quarter

Reproduced and adapted, with permission from Judith S. Rycus and Ronald C. Hughes, from the Institute for Human Services, Columbus Ohio.